Old Business
Committees
- Plant Sale – Bill Shaffer reported:
  - Sale was a huge success and best run plant sale. It was the best attended by Master Gardeners, about 140 workers.
  - Pot-a-thons attendance was up to 40 workers.
  - Kay Costello mentioned that the process of healing plants in at Eble the previous fall assisted sale with a good number of plants. Patty said we will do that again this year.
  - Left over plants went to Habit for Humanity.
  - Post Mortem meeting will be announced later.

- Garden Support – Patty Witt reported:
  - 9 gardens will be visited this year.
  - There will not be a garden open house event in 2014. Will plan for next year.

- In-House Education - Diane Thieme reported:
  - The Milwaukee City Green House Tour was well received.
  - Possible future date for plant sale folks who couldn’t make it.

- Trips and Tours – Doris Fons reported:
  - Jerry Nelson’s home tour is Wed, 5/28, has a couple of cancellations. Contact Doris.
  - Sign up for the July 18th bus trip to Green Bay Botanical Gardens and West of the Lake Gardens in Manitowoc, will begin 6/11 at 9:30am at the business meeting.

- Special Events – Diane Thieme reported:
  - State Fair is next event. Doris suggests a committee be formed to handle organizing special events. DNR will be making some changes. Nancy Dubyk is coordinating with composting, natives and butterfly garden.

- Life Long Gardening – Kay Costello reported:
  - Committee will be presenting programs and displays in the Milwaukee, Madison and Janesville areas through August. The committee’s membership is growing, now over 15 members.
  - Committee was well represented at the plant sale, assisting new, busy and/or challenged gardeners. Easy Care labeled plants were a great help.
  - Discussion on the wheel chair accessible table at State Fair.

- Clothing – Peg Schellin reported:
  - Last order had 151 items purchased, 40 in Waukesha and 49 in Milwaukee.
  - Pickup at the last class of Level 2 training was successful, and members were notified directly of items to be picked up.
  - Betty informed us that the next order will be this summer for fall clothing items. Look for it in the future.
