ENCOURAGED PLANTS
Plants that sell well and/or that are always in short supply

- Named cultivars of hosta, iris, daylilies, etc.
- Bleeding heart
- Non-ostrich fern
- Astilbe
- Shade plants (brunnera, ligularia, solomons seal, snake root, sedge, goatsbeard, epimedium, bugbane, pasque flower, blood root, Meadow Rue, etc.)
- Lungworts (other than Mrs. Moon)
- Natives (trillium, Joe Pye weed, Wild Ginger, jack-in-the-pulpit, Rattlesnake Master, Iron Weed, Queen of the Prairie, etc.)
- Heuchera – Heucherella – Tiarella
- Mums (need height and color – picture would help)
- Butterfly plants (butterfly weed, swamp milkweed)
- Hens and chicks
- Cushion spurge
- Alyssum saxatile
- Turtlehead
- Garden Phlox – all colors
- Scabiosa
- Primrose
- Phlomis
- Columbine
- Mountain Bluet
- Jupiter’s Beard
- Wild Senna
- Sea Holly
- Lobelia
- Pearly Everlasting
- Culver’s Root
- Veronica (all types)
- Monks Hood
- Amsonia (all kinds)
- Anemone
- Grasses (Miscanthus sinensis)
- Nepeta
- Caryopteris
- Plombago
- Toad Lily
- Blue Eye Grass
- Coreopsis – all
- Corydalis
- Penstemon
- Helenium
- Hellebores
- Knautia
- Prairie Smoke
- Liatris
- Echinops
- Hardy Geraniums
- Asiatic Lilies - Named

Any plant or cultivar not mentioned above may be brought to the sale subject to on-site quality control.

January 27, 2015