Interested in Gardening?
Want to Learn More?
Want to share that interest with others?

Become a UW-Extension
Master Gardener Volunteer
It’s fun and easy -
And a scholarship from the SouthEast Wisconsin Master Gardeners makes it more affordable!

Who is a Master Gardener Volunteer (MGV)?
- People over the age of 18 who love gardening and are willing to volunteer to share their enthusiasm and knowledge with others.

What is required to become a MGV?
- Take the UW-Extension MGV Level 1 Training Course. (See registration brochure for details.)
- Pass the take-home, open-book exam.
- Perform at least 24 hours volunteer service on public gardening projects of the UW-Extension.

How much does it cost?
- The UW-Extension course fee is $199 for all training materials.
- Plus, a one-time $50 service deposit for SouthEast Wisconsin Master Gardeners (SEWMG is a non-profit organization) which is refunded when you complete your 24 hours of volunteer service.
- And $10 annual membership dues for SouthEast Wisconsin Master Gardeners, Inc.

How much are scholarships for?
- The scholarship refunds you $80 of the $199 course fee.
- Scholarships are for individuals with financial need from Milwaukee and Waukesha counties and are provided through the generosity of the SouthEast Wisconsin Master Gardeners, Inc.

How do I apply for a scholarship?
- Fill out and mail the Scholarship Application along with ALL of the registration materials (background check consent form, registration form and your two checks - see UW-Extension Master Gardener Level 1 Training registration brochure for details) to:

  MGV Training / Scholarships
  Milwaukee County UW-Extension
  9501 W. Watertown Plank Rd., Bldg. A
  Wauwatosa, WI 53226-3552

If you receive a scholarship... You’ll be notified by the end of August. Then SEWMG will send you a check for $80.

Do it today! A limited number of scholarships are available!

More information about the UW-Extension MGV Program is available at http://fyi.uwex.edu/sewmg.